The steamer was out Saturday evening reducing the surplus in the reservoirs, so that some needed repairs could be made.

The Michigan Press Association will hold its 23d annual meeting at Saginaw on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 16, 17 and 18.

H. D. Forsyth and Miss Ida Stowe were married at the home of the parents of the bride in Hartford on Saturday evening, May 31st.

Eli Bierce and family will move to Missouri in short time—Mr. B. having secured a lucrative business engagement in that state.

John Burns let a horse to some man a few days ago to drive to Marcellus, and the horse died a few minutes after reaching that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. George Russell, of Kalamazoo, were guests over Sunday of A. T. Anderson and wife.

A man named Watson, working on a farm near Gliddenburg, had an arm broken and a shoulder dislocated in a runaway scence Monday.

The foot-bridge at the mineral spring has been repaired, to the delight of the scores of people who have faith in the virtues of those waters.

Miles Lucas caught two eels at the Landphers pond recently, the aggregate weight of which was 13 pounds; and this is not a fish story, either.

The thirteen-year-old son of Lyman Hineckley had the first joint of the thumb and first finger of the left hand blown off by dynamite last Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell and Carlton Russell and family will shortly leave for Eldorado, Kansas, where they will make their home in the future.

Frank Van Ness wheeled himself and Miss Confly, a reporter for the Chicago Times, from South Haven to this place, on a railroad velocipede, Sunday.

Col. Henry M. Duffield, Commander of the Department of Michigan, G. A. R., has appointed R. C. Nash, of Post No. 31, as Aide-de-Camp on his staff.

L. Martin's cherry orchard is coming to the front in better shape this year than ever before. His crop is variously estimated from 1000 to 1500 bushels.

The ladies of the Baptist Aid Society will give an ice cream social at the restaurant of James Bennett this (Wednesday) evening. All are cordially invited.

The person who took, by mistake, a camp chair from the court house yard on Memorial day, will please return it to J. W. Ball or any member of Brotherhood Post.

A game of base ball at Lawton last Saturday, between the Kalamazoo Wheel Co's nine and the Lawton team, resulted in favor of the former by a score of 15 to 11.

Mrs. H. S. Williams is expected to arrive in this village to-morrow and will try to see all her old time friends. She is at present with her mother, Mrs. Durkee, south of town.

Sheriff McFarlin was soliciting subscriptions to a fund for graveling the clay roads in Waverly, Monday, and was meeting with success. Mac headed the list himself with $25.

Many orchardists in this neighborhood are spraying their trees, using either Paris green or London purple, at the proportion of one pound of the drug to 200 gallons of water.

The public spirited people of both Marcellus and Decatur have decided upon having regular old-fashioned celebrations on the coming Fourth of July. Paw Paw will, of course, celebrate—as usual.

Owing to the small attendance, the Teachers' Institute, which was to have been held at Kalamazoo last week, was adjourned till the last Saturday in September, when it will meet at Bloomington.

"Patch" Harrison having tried the waters of the mineral spring, inwardly, to his satisfaction, is now giving his corns and bunions a chance, the initial treatment having been given Monday evening.

The spiritualists of Texas, Kalamazoo county, will hold a picnic and grove meeting at Parson's grove, near Crooked lake, on Sunday next. Good speaking and vocal and instrumental music will enliven the occasion.

Major Duncan, postmaster at Niles, has purchased a 10x18 Detroit Tribune flag, and proposes to float it to the breeze from a flag-staff over the post-office every day, except Sunday, that wind and weather will permit.

If "marriage is a failure," as is claimed by many, Philetus Sawyer, of Bangor, wants to demonstrate it, and in quest of personal knowledge on the subject he is now living with the third wife within fourteen months.

Philetus didn't allow "the funeral baked meats" to get cold, on either of the occasions of the late lamented No. 1 and No. 2.

Married, on Monday afternoon, the 9th inst., at the residence of, and by Elder H. A. Pallister, Mr. Robert S. Acton, of Decatur, and Miss Minnie M. Thrall, of Jackson. Thus one more captive passes into Thrall-dom.

Wool just begins to move a little and the market is unsettled. The best price thus far paid here is 35 cts. by A. Van Auker. Shearing is in full blast now and the market will probably assume some definite shape in the course of a week.

There will be no services at the Free Baptist church next Sunday morning, as the quarterly meeting, held with the Waverly church, convenes at that time, continuing over Sunday. The young people will have their meeting at 6:30 p. m., as usual.

The ladies of the Christian church are invited to meet at the home of Mrs. D. Woodman to-morrow (Thursday) at 2:30 p. m. Miss Elise Donaldson, the state organizer of missionary auxiliaries, will be present and explain the aim and workings of the C. W. B. M.

The Children's Day exercises at the Free Baptist, the Presbyterian and the M. E. churches last Saturday evening were of a highly interesting and instructive character and drew out large congregations, especially was this the case at the M. E. church, where scarcely standing room was obtainable.

The Evening News of Monday gives this rare bit of state news: "Capt. John Boyne, of South Haven, jumped into the river there a year ago, lowering of the water in Gogiac lake, on whose banks the state troops encamp." Now, we submit that for definiteness and directness the above is a yard wide.

An examination of the wheat and rye fields of this vicinity discloses the presence of the grain aphid, or wheat louse, in fully as great numbers as last year, and well-informed farmers fear that his attacks on the maturing grain will be more injurious than they were last year from the fact of his earlier arrival.

Miss Elise Donaldson, representing the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, will speak at the Christian church to-morrow (Thursday) evening. All interested in missionary work, especially the ladies, are invited to be present. Miss Donaldson is an enthusiastic worker in the missionary cause and an earnest and pleasing speaker.

Mr. Charles Griffin went to Bangor recently and purchased 14,000 shingles and did not examine them as closely as he should. When he opened them he found them to be fit only for kindling wood, and then went to Hathaway's and purchased some good ones. It is needless to say that he was satisfied with the latter.—Lawton Leader.

H. W. McCabe leaves to-day for Rochester, Minn., to attend a family reunion at the home of his mother, which occurs on the 19th inst. and which will be her 90th birthday. On his way out, Hank will stop at Prairie du Chien, Wis., and participate in a reunion of his old regiment, the 1st Wisconsin cavalry. He will return home about the 21st.

On account of Children's Day exercises being held at three of the churches last Sunday evening, no services were held at the Christian church. Next Sunday evening these beautiful services will be held at that church, at the close of which a collection for mission work in heathen lands will be taken up. Everybody cordially welcomed to the services.

The 17th annual picnic of the Cass County Pioneer Society will be held on the fair grounds at Cassopolis on Wednesday next. Gen. A. T. McKenney, of Grand Rapids, a veteran of the Mexican and late war, and a representative in the Michigan legislature fifty years ago, and Judge Thos. R. Sherwood, of Kalamazoo, will address the assembled pioneers.

Nat. Shanahan and Sid. Marshall, aged respectively 17 and 19 years, got drunk at Bangor on Memorial day and were committed to jail at this place last Saturday in default of the payment of a fine of $5 and costs. Shanahan's mother followed her son over here and paid his fine, but the Marshall had languishes (most of the time on the front steps of the court house) for thirteen days.

Miss Alice Allard, aged 19 years, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allard, of Antwerp, died on Saturday, the 31st ult., and was buried on Monday following. The untimely taking off of this most estimable young lady is a crushing blow, not only to her parents and family relatives, but to a large circle of associates by whom she was universally loved. Verily, "death loves a shining mark."

A very interesting programme for Children's Day was listened to by a large audience at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. One noticeable feature of the exercises was, that they were nearly all given by the younger members of the Sabbath school, and the ardor with which they entered into them showed how much enjoyment they derive from a service that is really their own.

The census enumerators are getting along finely with their work. Mr. Richardson, who is doing the work in this village, informs us that he has met nothing but the kindest of treatment at the hands of all he has so far called on, with one exception. And we are sorry for the exception—sorry that Paw Paw holds a man or woman so bigoted and silly as to refuse a courteous answer to every question which the enumerator is compelled to ask.

The Decatur Republican objects to the animus that prompts its Dowagiac namesake in any reference it has to Decatur, characterizing that town as "a haven of rest," and "a quiet place to spend a short time away from the cares of business and bustle," etc., etc., and intimates that the Dowagiac pencil-pusher is another such fellow as "Old Tom Kern" used to be. When Tom once told a lie, he kept right on telling it till he believed it himself.
